Sale of entire stock of T. Edward Kibbey Waists, suits, gowns, costumes, furs, neckwear, etc. Practically everything half price or less

Mr. Kibbey has just retired from business at 1331 F Street N. W.

Most important sale announcement in years. In new, clean, fresh, desirable merchandise there are almost undreamed-of bargains. THINK! Here just 21 buying days before Easter is offered such a chance. Suits, dresses, costumes, waists, etc., in very latest spring styles. Nothing could be more opportune. Where in Washington is there a woman who does not know the high character of the Kibbey stock. For ourselves we are more than delighted to have the opportunity of offering this stock to our patrons. The real attractiveness of the sale cannot be realized except by coming to the store and examining the goods.

The sale includes not only all of the stock on hand, but the suits, gowns, waists, etc., but recently ordered by Mr. Kibbey for Easter trade and cancelled on account of discontinuing business.

And so buyers will have the opportunity of selecting from a most complete line of ready-to-wear garments and dress accessories of all kinds in the most advanced Spring styles, at a small part of real value—yes, much below cost of production. Only the most up-to-date, high-class merchandise was carried in the Kibbey store. The sale will be the sensation of years—in confirmation of this prediction we refer you to the bulletin below and the merchandise represented by it.
